Participation in these incentives is voluntary, and you may opt out of receiving these electronic communications by contacting us as indicated in the “Your Options” section above. FULLBEAUTY Brands does not generally assign monetary or other value to consumers’ Personal Information, and our promotional activity changes continually. To the extent California law requires that a value be assigned to such programs, or the price or service differences they involve, FULLBEAUTY Brands values the Personal Information as being equal to the value of the discounts or other financial incentives provided in each such program. Such calculation is based upon a practical and good-faith effort to assess, on an aggregate basis for all collected information: (1) the data elements collected (e.g., email address), (2) the use of such information by FULLBEAUTY Brands in connection with its marketing activities, (3) the range of discounts provided (which can depend on each consumer’s purchases under such offers), (4) the number of consumers enrolled in respective programs, and (5) the product or service to which the benefits (such as price difference) applies. These values can change over time.
